AMERICAN AIRLINES ARENA STATEMENT ON EVENT POSTPONEMENTS

MIAMI—Miami-Dade County declared a state of emergency due to escalating concerns about the spread of COVID-19. Earlier today, the office of Miami-Dade County Mayor Carlos A. Gimenez issued a statement suspending all major events at the American Airlines Arena.

Scheduled events through April 1st at the American Airlines Arena include:

- Thursday, March 12 – Aventura (postponed; date TBD)
- Thursday, March 19 – Disney On Ice (postponed; date TBD)
- Friday, March 20 – Disney On Ice (postponed; date TBD)
- Saturday, March 21 – Disney On Ice (postponed; date TBD)
- Sunday, March 22 – Disney On Ice (postponed; date TBD)
- Tuesday, March 24 – Cher (postponed; date TBD)
- Monday, March 29 – Ricardo Montaner (postponed; date TBD)

Tickets purchased for any of the aforementioned concerts at the American Airlines Arena during the impacted dates will be honored for the rescheduled dates, which are still to be determined. Guests should stay tuned to AAArena.com for updated information. Refunds will be available at the original point of purchase. Information pertaining to events scheduled after April 1st will be released at a later date.

Alongside the NBA, the Miami HEAT and American Airlines Arena will continue to closely monitor this situation and consult with health officials at the local, state and federal level to determine next steps for future games and events.

We appreciate the understanding and patience of our fans, guests and partners during this unprecedented situation.
